Dear Parents / Carers

PG Films /12A

As part of our curriculum provision at Charville we will often use films to support and enhance our children's learning.

Some of the films/video clips we show the children are rated:-

PG (Parental Guidance). This means a film is suitable for any age but some scenes may be unsuitable for younger children and parents/carers can make up their minds about whether they think a film is suitable.

OR

12A (12A is advisory). This means that as with U (Universal) and PG, parents can make up their minds about whether they think a film is suitable.

PG rated films include popular films such as Frozen and Moana. Furthermore, we only tend to show 12A rated films in Years 5 and 6, when we look at texts such as Harry Potter.

If you do not give consent to your child/ren watching these films, please send an email to office@charvilleacademy.org by Friday 19th November, otherwise we will assume we have consent for your child/ren whilst they attend Charville.

Yours sincerely

MRS R MADAR
Deputy Headteacher
