

Weekly Newsletter

7th March 2025

Welcome to this week's newsletter.

This week's assembly was an opportunity to introduce the values of Cooperation and Peace. This is particularly pertinent based on current world events.

Cooperation is defined as working together as a team and Peace is explained as living and working together happily and calmly.

I would like to take this opportunity to remind all parents and carers that staff and families need to work in cooperation with one another as we are a school community. We ask that all parents and carers communicate with staff in accordance with our policies and Parent Code of Conduct. It is in all of our interest to ensure that communication with school and families is respectful.

This week has been a busy week. On Tuesday we had our second author visit and more information can be found in the rest of the newsletter.

On Tuesday a group of children from The Hub attended the first of their scheduled visits to a local farm that hosts children with special Educational needs; again see the rest of the newsletter for further information.

On Wednesday we welcomed the Governing Board to school for the annual In School Governor Day, which is always an Opportunity for them to see the school in action. We also held our Annual General Meeting (AGM) as part of this day.

World Book Day Author Visits

Children from Nursery to Year 6 have been lucky enough to meet some inspirational authors to celebrate World Book Day. Pippa Goodhart visited EYFS, KS1 and Year 3. During this time, she took the children on an adventure of their imagination with her 'You Choose' books. KS2 were visited by Jan Burchett and Sara Vogler who shared their writing process and read extracts from 'Spy Master' and 'Sam Silver'.

Farm visit

Life-skills is an important part of our curriculum within both The Hub and our CLIC programme. As a school we have developed links with Heathrow Special Needs Farm. The Heathrow Special Needs Centre is committed to enhancing the lives of individuals of all ages with disabilities and special needs. This week was our first visit, the first children completed different jobs such as preparing feed, cleaning food bowls and cleaning windows. The children showed great determination this week in completing their jobs. Five children will attend each week on a rotational basis and we cannot wait to see the children get stuck in and become mini farmers!
