

Weekly Newsletter

2nd October 2026

Welcome to this week's newsletter.

This week began with assembly where the taught the children about the annual harvest and how this links to our values. We have been collecting donations for a local foodbank and would like to thank you for your generosity as we have collected a lot of donations.

The Parent Consultation letters have been issued and appointments are now available via Arbor and will remain available until 2:30 on Tuesday 6th October. Please note that all appointments do need to be made on that day as we are unable to make appointments on alternative days. The appointments are limited to 10 minutes per child and we do ask that you support us with this so that staff do not over run.

If your child is in Year 6 please note that the application form for starting secondary school in September 2027 is now live. Many of the schools have held their annual opening evening and I hope you have had an opportunity to visit the schools. The application form needs to be submitted by no later than the 31st October. If you need any support completing the form please contact us at office@charvilleacademy.org

I mentioned in last week's newsletter that we have been notified of road works on Charville Lane. If this affects your journey to and from school, please allow extra time.

Today was the official opening of our memorial to Miss Sarah Bristow. We have refurbished our former ICT Suite and created an Art Studio, which we have named: Sarah's Studio. We were delighted to have Miss Bristow's family at school for the opening.

Star write 1-The Egyptian cinderella

In the heart of Ancient Egypt where pyramids stand tall and golden sand glows under the hot sun, there awaits a girl longing for love and laughter filled with memories that last forever called Rhodapis. She has emerald-green eyes that glimmer like two diamonds in the night sky. Rhodapis has long flowing hair like pieces pieces of string from the sun.

After an exhausting day of hard work Rhodapis loves to spend her free time dancing for the animals of the forest like a princess in disguise. One day when she was dancing it was so good that it caught the master's eye. He brushed his beard before telling her "You shall no longer have all amazing talent barefooted!" he exclaimed in a deep voice while handing her beautiful rose-gold slippers that sparkled like stars. "Thank you master I have no words!" said Rhodapis. As she twinkled her feet, while the other servant girls' minds flooded with jealousy. Since she got slippers the girls make her work endlessly. Rhodapis hurry up pull the wheels, "water the garden and scrub the floors!" whined the mean servants.

As Rhodapis continuously cleaned her slippers, a falcon joined she thought this was a sign sent down by the gods. Until, "No, my slipper!" Rhodapis cried as the falcon flew gracefully into the infinite expanse of the sky. Now when she dances she will only have one slipper and even the monkey will laugh to make things worse. The other girls walked towards her "Were going to the ^{Pharaoh} feroch and your not wanted there." they snappet. "Please ~~Rhod~~ May I attend?" begged Rhodapis. "No you pest, now get back to work!" snappet the servants.

When the ^{Pharaoh} feroch had finally arrived Rhodapis ~~had~~ was nowhere to be seen. Suddenly a falcon with big fluttering wings dropped a slipper onto his lap. he knew whoever this sparkling slipper belongs to, is his missing piece. So they searched endlessly and even the mean servant girls squeezed and squeezed until their goos went red until they walked and walked to longing Rhodapis and found the Queen the land of pyramids needed. And they lived happily ever after.

CURRICULUM BOOKLETS

The curriculum booklets for the Autumn term are on the website. Please follow the links to access them:-

Communication

Communication is very important to us and we appreciate you being able to ask questions and raise any concerns.

Please remember that staff will respond within 48hrs, during term time week days. It is not possible to have your questions answered immediately as it is often the case that information needs to be gathered before we can get back to you.

Reception Phonics Workshop

On Tuesday the reception children got to showcase all the amazing work they have been doing in Phonics by welcoming the parent's into the classroom. We got to play lots of different phonics games and activities that can be replicated at home. It was wonderful to see so many of parent's there showing such a keen interest in phonics and how you can support your child's learning at home. We hope all the parent's found the workshop useful and informative.

Late Collections

Please see the parent letter issued on Thursday 10th September, which explains what we have now put in place following an increase last academic year in the number of children being regularly collected after the gates have closed at the end of the school day.

Please note that this took effect on Monday 21st September.

Prompt collection at the end of the day supports all staff to ensure that children are dismissed collectively and safely.

We will no longer be able to allow adults collecting late, onsite at the end of the day as this is compromising the safe loading and departure of school transport.

Please read the letter in full as it does set out how the process is changing and how this will be managed.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Pantomime 2026

Following a successful Reception Trip to the Panto in 2025, we made a provisional booking to visit the panto with children from Reception to Year 6. This was an annual tradition before the pandemic and we were hoping to reintroduce this special trip.

Unfortunately, due to a lack of responses, we have had to cancel this event. We do apologise for any disappointment caused but the trip would not have been financially viable.

Reception parents came for lunch!

On Wednesday the reception parents joined the children for lunch. It was a pleasure to see so many parents enjoying the school dinner and encouraging the children to do the same.

Attendance

Whole school attendance this week is 93.99%
