Personal Statement :

I am a retired Deputy Headteacher with 36 years experience in Primary Education. I have always been passionate about education and child development. My decisions are always focused on the best interests for the pupils and the school. I feel it is very important that pupils receive an education in a school where they feel they belong, so they can thrive and achieve.
The school curriculum must be accessible to all regardless of their needs or background, so pupils experience no barriers to their learning. I spend a day a week in Charville to support pupils' Reading development. I believe that a positive school ethos and values are very important elements in the holistic education of all pupils. I know Charville's values underpin everything in the school community and provide its moral compass for all stakeholders to live out daily. I thoroughly enjoy being a Charville Governor. I will continue to use my knowledge, skills and experience to support the school to maintain its high standards and to assist the Governing Body to deliver its strategic role and future challenges.
