Personal Statement :

I started my career at Charville Academy in 2024 and have built a strong connection with the school and its community. I have a particular interest in inclusion and believe that every child should feel valued, supported and able to achieve their potential. In my previous role before teaching, I gained experience in health and safety, which I am pleased to bring to my role as a governor. I am dedicated to supporting the school and my colleagues to contribute to creating a safe, welcoming and inclusive environment for all. I look forward to helping the school continue to grow and thrive.
