

Nicola Kelly – Head of Charville Academy

Nicola has been Headteacher of Charville Academy since 2014 and is part of the Governing Board. She has two sons and two step sons and is married to Andrew.

Area of Responsibility

Nicola sits on all committees in her role as Head and is the Designated Safeguarding Officer for the school. Her role also includes overall responsibility for academy finance.

Other information

Having grown up in the local area, Nicola attended a Hillingdon secondary school and enjoys being part of the Hayes community, where her parents still live. Her family take up all her spare time and she thoroughly enjoys the time she spends supporting her children in their activities. She enjoys socialising with friends and has had flying lessons after a milestone birthday!
