

Charville Academy Weekly Newsletter

Friday 10th January 2020

RECOMMENDED READS FOR US TO SHARE

Please continue to send in your Sun book vouchers as we are hoping to use these to purchase as many new books as possible for school.

Thank you to those who have already contributed to the purchase of a reading vending machine via ParentPay (to date £272.20 has been received). If you would still like to do so please login in and donate.

This week we can recommend: Wilma Unlimited by Kathleen Krull. This is based on a true story and explores determination and challenge alongside adversity and racism.

We are an Enhanced Values Based School

This month we are looking at the values of challenge and determination, which we are linking to READING as it is one of our main school priorities.

All certificates given out in Friday's assemblies this month will be linked to reading so please support your child with daily reading.

ATTENDANCE

Well done to all those that were in their own clothes on Monday for 100% attendance. This term is an opportunity to improve the year to date figure, which was affected by the low attendance figures in December. This week's attendance has improved as the week has gone on.

5 Star Rating

Well done to all the Dining Room staff. Environmental Health carried out a no notice inspection this week and the team achieved a 5-star rating once again!

Understanding Bullying

Preventing and understanding all forms of bullying is important. There are a number of sites that can support parents and carers to understand bullying, including online bullying:

In the event of extreme weather....

We will update our website and issue a text message in the event of any school closure due to extreme weather. Please avoid calling the school as this blocks the lines.

COFFEE MORNING

Thank you to the parents / carers who attended coffee morning on Wednesday to discuss the values for the month of challenge and determination, which we are linking to READING.

Coffee mornings take place on Wednesdays at 9.00 am.

CHARITIES

Thank you for recently donating to the charities being supported by the school.

£337.45 was raised for Children In Need and £108.02 was raised for the HALO charity.
