READING AS A SCHOOL PRIORITY

As part of our work this week on promoting Science, Technology, Engineering and Maths (STEM) we read a story to motivate girls and spoke to the boys about being able to do anything we put our minds to.

We are an
Enhanced
Values Based School

This week in assembly, it was encouraging to see children chosen for Tea Party based on how they have been showing cooperation and peace towards others.

Lots of the certificates related directly to the playgrounds and children helping others to keep the playgrounds as calm as possible.

Next week we will link these values directly to our behaviour policy and share this with the children.

Coronavirus/ COVID-19 Update

Following yesterday's announcement from the government we remain open. Letters were issued to all parents / carers today regarding our approach.

We are minimising non-essential contact so all trips, visits and sporting fixtures up until 3rd April have been cancelled.

We will continue to keep you updated if the government advice were to change.

FEEDBACK and ACTION

For our end of term newsletter, we would like to update you on how we respond to feedback you give us. If there is anything you would like to raise that you feel needs improving please let us know.

THANK YOU

Thank you if you donated The Sun book vouchers. We have received delivery of a number of high-quality books, which can be further used to support children's love of reading.

This week pupils celebrated Science Week. As part of the week, on Monday the pupils marked International Women's Day through the assemblies and visitors came in to talk about their careers in Science and show the children how important Science is in the world.

Children saw a range of experiments involving chemical reactions. They certainly enjoyed talking about it.

Pupils enjoyed a visit from the author, Cliff McNish. He spoke to the children about his inspirations for writing and how to develop characters that are original and interesting. He focused on the witch character as part of our Science theme of Potions.

KS2 pupils had an assembly delivered by students from Brunel University. They focused on the qualifications needed and pathways into different STEM careers. After this they held a workshop for the Year 5 pupils, which they thoroughly enjoyed.

Science Week concluded today with children having the opportunity to dress up in the theme of Harry Potter, witches, wizards and scientists.
