

COVID-19 UPDATE

Today marks what should be the start of May half term. School remains open next week for children of key workers.

This week has been dominated by preparations for the planned partial reopening of primary schools in England on 1st June.

Letters have been issued today to parents and carers of:

Children in Nursery & Reception

Children in Year 1

Children in Year 6

Children with an EHCP

Children with an allocated social worker

Children of key workers (letter issued to Years 2 – 5)

A separate letter has also been issued with additional information relating to the planned phase return

Please ensure you read the letters in full as our plans rely heavily on your understanding of the letters and we ask that you pay particular attention to the drop off times, pick up times and what to do if your child shows symptoms of Coronavirus.

All the plans are subject to change and you will be kept fully updated if things do change.

Senior staff are available at the end of the phone from 8-4 next Tuesday to Friday as we are closed for Bank Holiday Monday, if you have any questions. If you prefer to email please send your questions to:
office@charvilleacademy.org

Mental Health and Well Being for Parents and Carers

During this time your mental health is a key part of being able to support your child. There are lots of ways to ensure that you are looking after your own mental health and some ideas to support you can be found here:

<https://youngminds.org.uk/find-help/for-parents/parents-survival-guide/>

Ramadan

Our Muslim community are currently observing the period of Ramadan, a time of reflection and prayer.

This comes to an end this weekend and this marks a time of celebration: Eid.

Charville is not responsible for the content of external websites